

ENVIRONICS
• INSTITUTE •

Presents findings from the

Urban Aboriginal Peoples Study

Last year, members of Regina's Aboriginal community took part in the most in-depth survey of its' kind ever conducted in Canada. Hundreds were interviewed about life in the city, values, community relations, aspirations, and identity. Join us for an evening about what you told us, what we heard.

Sharing what we heard... Sharing what you told us...

Thursday, March 10th, 2011

4:30pm – 7:00pm

Ramada Hotel

1818 Victoria Avenue

Free Admission and Food Provided

Presented by:

Ginger Gosnell-Myers

Public Engagement Director

Ginger.gosnell-myers@environics.ca

www.uaps.ca

Government of Saskatchewan

REGINA
UAS
COMMITTEE

Canada

Indian and Northern Affairs Canada