

ENVIRONICS
• INSTITUTE •

Presents findings from the

Urban Aboriginal Peoples Study

Sharing what we heard... Sharing what you told us...

Last year, members of metro Vancouver's Aboriginal community took part in the most in-depth survey of its' kind ever conducted in Canada. Hundreds were interviewed about life in the city, values, community relations, aspirations, and identity. Join us for an evening to hear what we were told about Vancouver's urban Aboriginal community.

Monday, June 20, 2011

5:00 – 9:00pm

Vancouver Aboriginal Friendship Centre

1607 East Hastings Street

Everyone welcome to attend.

*food served prior from 4:30 – 5:00pm

Presented by:

Ginger Gosnell-Myers, Public Engagement Director, Environics Institute

MC: Christine Smith, Co-Chair,

Metro Vancouver Aboriginal Executive Council

Featuring Expert Panel from Vancouver's Aboriginal Community,

Metro Vancouver Aboriginal Executive Council

vancouver
foundation

MVUAS
METRO VANCOUVER
URBAN ABORIGINAL STRATEGY
Building Relationships to Address the Needs of Our Community

 CITY OF VANCOUVER

TIDEScanada
uncommon solutions for the common good

JOHN LEFEBVRE

Canada

Indian and Northern Affairs Canada

For more information:

Ginger.gosnell-myers@environics.ca
www.uaps.ca

Parking is limited, so please arrive early to secure a spot in the neighbourhood.